Broderick faces trial in 2 deaths

Actor Matthew Broderick goes on trial today in Northern Ireland on charges of causing two deaths by reckless driving in an Aug. 5 accident.

Broderick, 25, starred in the box office hits "WarGames" and "Ferris Bueller's Day Off" and won a Tony award for his performance in the Broadway hit "Brighton Beach Memoirs."

Broderick was on vacation in Ireland with his girlfriend, actress Jennifer Gray, when the car he was driving collided with an oncoming vehicle on a country road about six miles outside Enniskillen, in the British province of Northern Ireland.

Anna Gallagher, 28, and her 60-year-old mother, Margaret Doherty, were killed in the collision and Broderick was hospitalized with a badly fractured leg. Gray was not injured.

Broderick spent a month recovering in a private ward in the Royal Victoria Hospital in Belfast and attended a preliminary hearing Sept. 7 in a makeshift court set up in the hospital. He was charged with causing death by reckless driving and was freed on about $4,100 bail.

If the court accepts a guilty plea to a lesser charge of reckless driving, Broderick might only be fined. If convicted of causing deaths by reckless driving, he could be sentenced to five years in prison.

CHICAGO Thom M. Serafin PROFILE /

SUN-TIMES/Brian Jackson

MAIN JOB

Political consultant. His firm, Serafin & Associates, will be changing its name this year to Serafin/Bogdanich, 155 N. Michigan.

CURRENT CANDIDATE

He's media director and campaign coordinator for Aurelia Pucinski, a Democratic candidate for Circuit Court clerk.

EARLIER TASKS

Worked on campaigns for Sen. Alan Dixon, Alex Seith, Jim Donnewald. Toiled in Dixon's press office here and in Washington. Ran Gary Hart's regional Midwest office until the Donna Rice debacle.

A GOOD CANDIDATE IS

"A man or woman who's willing to go the distance for what he or she believes in. There's not too much of that anymore, unfortunately."

PRESIDENTIAL CHOICES

"I think Dole and Dukakis would give the American people a good choice. I think no matter what happened in the general election, the American people would be well-served."

STATS

Born in Milwaukee, lives in Sandburg Village, now 38 and a bachelor. His parents live in Peoria. Has been statehouse correspondent for a bureau that served 55 Illinois radio stations, as well as Gaslight Clubs public relations chief here.

DO CONSULTANTS KEEP COUNT?

"Not really. A lot don't want to. My goal through life is have them say, 'He made a difference.' You can't look at won-lost. It's how you played the game and whether you held your head up and told the truth."

BEST, WORST ADVICE RECEIVED

Best: "A politician once told me, 'Know everything you talk about but don't talk about everything you know.'" Worst: "Do it for the money."

PHILOSOPHY

"The reasons for my success are my parents. I think God is a very important part of one's life. I spent two, three years in a Catholic seminary. Trust in God, take care of your family, work hard and you'll do all right." —Bob Herguth

"Casmir" - [redacted] was in the florist business - member Polish American Club became friends DAN was introduced to [redacted] at Wiltshire approx '74 or 1975. First car [redacted] to DAN was a Thunderbird (longer model). [redacted] could not recall if the '75 Thunderbird was the first or if he sold him the '74.

[redacted] could not recall how DAN paid for the 1974 or '75 T-Birds.

b6
b7C

[redacted] was not sure how long DAN had an open tab for the purchase. DAN told [redacted] that checks were coming in monthly for the cars from U.S. government. (first car to DAN '74)

Date Unknown [redacted] recalls DAN said he's leasing the cars from Wiltshire but ~~at~~ at the end of the year DAN would either pay off what he owed or traded the car in for another car.

DAN insisted on saying that he was leasing his ~~any~~ cars, DAN never changed his story.

That why [redacted] asked [redacted] about how Wilshire was getting paid, because DAN never ^{actually} leased the cars.

The reason the leasing company wasn't used, because it would have cost more money for DAN and would be more paper work. (supposedly)

b6
b7C

Dan filled out purchase documents, no lease documents were ever filled out, DAN would come into Wilshire or call in his new order for a car.

[redacted] Never saw a monthly check, but could recall that DAN or [redacted] told [redacted] that the U.S. government was making payments on DAN's VAN. - 1987 Ford Econoline

The accident on or about 7/23/84 was a car driven by DAN, rented not leased by DAN ~~was~~ for a four week period, for personal use, [redacted] ~~was~~ not within [redacted]

b3
b6
b7C

DAN rented this car for the summer

[redacted] was incorrect. [redacted] stated/verified that the rental agreement # for the accident was 0809. Customer name Rostenkowski for Congress Center signed by DAN.

b6
b7C

- [redacted] did not know if RFCC paid or DAN. [redacted] could not recall if DAN paid up front or after rental. but stated that the $4 must have been paid after the week because ^{rest on the} ~~the $20 deductible paid.~~

DAN rented ~~at least~~ Mustang convertibles for around 4 months at a time for four diff. occasions

1984

2/21/87

[redacted] DAN's secretary, traded in a 1983 Mustang for a 1987 Ford Mustang.

[redacted] her husband purchased funds for Wiltshire. The 83 was sold to [redacted] for Wiltshire.

[redacted] always financed cars thru FMCC.

[redacted] for [redacted] (low finance rate thru FMCC.)

[redacted] paid fund not Wiltshire for monthly payments.

At the time the deals were made DAN said he wanted to "lease" the cars. DAN said that the gov. was going to pay for the cars on a rental basis, ^{determined by DOD.} the limit paid was to pay the car off - not a lease payment. A lease payment would have been less, when the "lease was up" car returned, if it was paid for - DAN got it, if the car wasn't totally paid for, DAN would pay the diff.

^{title for the} The cars were put in DAN name, with Wiltshire added as a lienholder, because DAN didn't outright pay for the car when he took the car.

Wiltshire had it's own leasing co., but we didn't use it - Don't know why.

DAN rented vehicles for other dealers - a Lincoln for (LIPIN) that [] had seen [] driving around and a large ~~car~~ camper like van, bigger than a van like a camper. b6 b7C

DAN got special treatment because he was a U.S. Congressman and that payments for the U.S. government would be coming in every month.

[] never saw any payments for cars. b6 b7C

1987 Ford Econoline Van

- Dan said he was going to use it for campaigning 2 phones installed - one in front & back

$7,348 conversion was added into VAN cost.

DAN currently has VAN. - DAN owns, gov. paid monthly.

1988 - Sure deal

Ford Escort. - When DAN wasn't in town his daughter used the car.

1989 Ford Probe

Sure deal

(Last car sold by [])

- was bought for []

was there when DAN got it, [] doesn't know if the Gov. paid for this one. b6 b7C

b6
b7C

1989 AEROSTAR - After [] Retired, [] talked to [] about it - and [] said that DAN ROSE got for campaign.

1991 - Didn't know about it.
